

NAUSET INTERFAITH THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The annual Nauset Interfaith Thanksgiving Service's theme is BIND US TOGETHER, LORD, taken from the words of President Abraham Lincoln near the end of the Civil War when he established Thanksgiving as a national holiday. " ...we fervently implore the Almighty's hand to heal the wounds of the nation..." Today, as then, we as a nation are suffering deep division and epidemic violence, far from the domestic tranquility our forbears sought to achieve for all of us.

The service will take place at St. Joan of Arc Church on Canal Road in Orleans on Sunday, November 19th at 2 pm. A reception will follow the service. All are welcome! The service will include Jewish, Christian, Unitarian/Universalist, Wampanoag and Muslim readings and prayers. There will be a short reflection by The Reverend Wesley Williams, chair of the Martin Luther King Action team of Nauset Interfaith, on healing racism in our country. There will also be two short reflections by two young folk relating to the issues of homelessness, addiction and reaching out to immigrants and refugees. The interfaith choir will be led by Music Director Art McManus of St. Joan of Arc Church.

The offering given at the service will be given to three action teams of Nauset Interfaith who work on the lower and outer cape with human service organizations, school counselors, the police and other community groups to support at risk and homeless youth, immigrants and refugees and those who suffer discrimination.

Nauset Interfaith is a voluntary association of clergy and lay leaders representing some 20 faith communities in the Nauset region from Brewster and Harwich to Provincetown. Our mission is threefold: to deepen our mutual understanding of each faith tradition, to support and encourage each other and to work together for the common good of our communities, especially with the poor, oppressed and marginalized. For more information about this Interfaith service or Nauset Interfaith please contact Fr. Ken Campbell, convener, at ksbcampbell@verizon.net or 413-478-5719.
